

PROTECTION OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA

This privacy statement provides information about the processing and the protection of your personal data

1. Introduction

The European Agency for the operational management of large-scale IT systems in the area of freedom, security and justice (hereafter, 'eu-LISA') is committed to protect your personal data and to respect your privacy. eu-LISA collects and further processes personal data pursuant to Regulation \(EU\) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data (repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001).

This privacy statement explains the reason for the processing of your personal data, the way we collect, handle and ensure protection of all personal data provided, how that information is used and what rights you have in relation to your personal data

The information in relation to processing operation 'CBS System Solution Testing tools' suite undertaken by Test and Transition Unit (TTU) is presented below.

2. Why and how do we process your personal data?

TTU collects and uses your personal information to manage the user accounts, to report on the user's status and performance regarding their testing campaigns and to provide access to the testers to the CBS System Solution Testing tools suite (JMeter and SauceLabs).

Your personal data will not be used for an automated decision-making including profiling.

Your personal data processed may be reused for the purpose of procedures before the EU Courts, national courts, or the European Court of Auditors.

3. On what legal ground(s) do we process your personal data

We process your personal data, because:

- (a) processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Union institution or body.

4. Which personal data do we collect and further process?

In order to carry out this processing operation TTU collects the following categories of personal data:

- Full name of user who is assigned to use the platform,
- User ID,
- Windows Active Directory ID,
- Activity logs,

The provision of personal data is mandatory. If you do not provide your personal data, possible consequences are the denial to access the platforms in order to execute performance tests.

5. How long do we keep your personal data?

TTU only keeps your personal data for the time necessary to fulfil the purpose of collection or further processing namely for user accounts, when a user is no longer active, the access rights will be revoked and the generic user account will be allocated to a different user or stay in an unassigned status.

When determining the maximum retention periods, the Agency takes also into account possible legal recourses, legal, auditing, archiving and reporting obligations.

6. Who has access to your personal data and to whom is it disclosed?

Access to your personal data is provided to eu-LISA staff responsible for carrying out this processing operation, to authorised staff according to the “need to know” principle and to Contractors providing testing services to eu-LISA. Such staff abide by statutory, and when required, additional confidentiality agreements.

The information we collect will not be given to any third party, except to the extent and for the purpose we may be required to do so by law.

7. What are your rights and how can you exercise them?

You have specific rights as a ‘data subject’ under Chapter III (Articles 14-25) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, in particular the right to access, rectify or erase your personal data and the right to restrict the processing of your personal data. Where applicable, you also have the right to object to the processing or the right to data portability.

You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data, which is lawfully carried out pursuant to Article 5(1)(a).

You can exercise your rights by contacting the Data Controller, or in case of conflict the Data Protection Officer. If necessary, you can also address the European Data Protection Supervisor.

8. Contact information

- The Data Controller

If you would like to exercise your rights under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, or if you have comments, questions or concerns, or if you would like to submit a complaint regarding the collection and use of your personal data, please feel free to contact the Data Controller, tems@eulisa.europa.eu.

- The Data Protection Officer of eu-LISA

You may contact the Data Protection Officer (dpo@eulisa.europa.eu) with regard to issues related to the processing of your personal data under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725.
